

The Evening World

Published by the Press Publishing Company,
25 to 27 PARK ROW, New York.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 14, 1894.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD
(including postage):

PER MONTH.....$3.00
PER YEAR.....$35.00
Vol. 85.....No. 12,047

Sent at the Post-Office at New York as second-class matter.

NEW BRANCH OFFICES:
WORLD OFFICE—Junction of Broadway and Sixth Ave. at 25th St.
WORLD HARLEM OFFICE—125th St. and Madison Ave.
BROOKLYN—429 Washington St.
PHILADELPHIA, PA.—Inquirer Office, 229 Chestnut St.
WASHINGTON—703 14th St.

JULY, 1894.

BROKE ALL RECORDS IN

NEWSPAPER CIRCULATION.

471,740

WORLDS per day was the average for July, 1894.

July, 1894 - - 471,740 per day

July, 1893 - - 393,833 per day

Gain in year 78,707 per day

Readers of THE EVENING WORLD leaving the city for the last months should send in their address and have THE EVENING WORLD mailed to them regularly.

Well, Congress has acted.

Now let business get to booming.

Thus far the Sugar Trust has the laugh.

Half a tariff loaf is much better than no bread.

There is still one thing for Congress to do—adjourn.

If they are still Glants, they are welcome home again.

Yesterday was an unlucky 11th for the "conservative" Senators.

No one doubts the sincerity of Mayor Gilroy's appeal for harmony.

Events do not move rapidly as regards the bridging of the North River.

The police investigator loves a shining mark—like the Captain's gold badge.

Fassett and Milholland represent the in and out of the Republican running.

Does Mayor Gilroy expect to get a lesson in harmony from the peace of Europe?

Those wild horses at Washington have stopped. But just look at the band wagon!

From present indications it appears that Messieurs Jackson and Corbett will continue to handle each other without gloves.

It is not yet reported that symptoms of pantaloons have been discovered in Justice Oliver.

Even the cold water which has been thrown on tariff reform will help to revive fainting industry.

The new Chinese treaty is a good deal like the opening of the Chinese war with Japan. China is not in it.

'Tis better to have fought for tariff reform and lost, for the time being, than never to have fought at all.

The income tax provision is still in the bill. That, at least, is a gain for the cause of equitable taxation.

A garbage cremating plant would save the money and spare the nostrils of many tax-paying New Yorkers.

The people of New York City have principles to vote for. Give them a ticket which represents those principles.

Police corruption is not a plant of ordinary growth. It is not downward that the investigator is to search for the roots. Look upward.

There is no hope for Caserio, slayer of Carnot. He must pay the penalty. There never should be any hope for the willful murderer in any land.

Having announced that they feel able to elect a yellow dog as Governor this year, the Republicans of the Empire State begin to talk of nominating Fassett.

The Lexow Committee solemnly pledged itself that no witness should be persecuted for consequences of testimony given before the Committee. Is it keeping its pledge?

Levi P. Morton is coming home from Switzerland. He will view the political Alps in New York State before deciding whether to attempt a climb to the Governorship.

While the Evicted Tenants' bill is before the House of Lords their lordships might get some valuable pointers against the bill from Sir George Pullman, who is America's greatest living expert on the question of evictions.

The defeat of yesterday is far from total. The new tariff bill includes an income tax of two per cent. on income above $4,000, and it is safe to assert that the income tax is here to stay. It represents the principle that taxation should be adjusted in proportion to the ability to pay, and in this respect it differs essentially from the taxing of food or any of the necessities of life. A short experience of its results will put an end to all talk against it.

A SURRENDER AND A VICTORY.

A tariff bill has been passed. It is not a real Tariff-Hedera bill, though it will do away with some of the conspicuous evils of McKinleyism. It is not the bill called for by the Democratic National platform of 1892. It is not the bill which the people expected when they cast their votes on the strength of the promise contained in that platform. But, at least, a long and arduous period of suspense has been ended, and an unnatural cause of business depression has been removed. It may be confidently expected that an immediate revival of the country's commercial and industrial interests will follow.

The final passing of the bill was a surrender and a victory. The House of Representatives receded from a position in which it had the support of the people and the Administration. It yielded to a force which was distinctly arrayed against popular interests and Democratic principles. But, in yielding, the House undoubtedly spoiled a conspiracy existing in the Senate through machinations of the Trusts, to prevent any tariff legislation whatever. It was calculated that the bill had been made so objectionable that the Senate would not accept it. Then all the Senate had to do was to remain obdurate in conference until all attempts at legislation should be abandoned, and McKinleyism be left triumphant. This pretty scheme has been thwarted, and in that fact and with what benefits the new measure will undoubtedly bring to the nation's traders and workers, the people must for the time being content themselves.

THE POLICE MACHINE.

Nothing more remarkable or interesting has followed the hunting down of police corruption in New York City than the revelation of how thoroughly the force is permeated with the principles of bossism and boss machination. No political leader of a district is better provided with "heelers" and watchers than is the police pantana with "personal representatives," "collectors," or whatever they may be called publicly or privately. The system of agencies and sub-agencies is seemingly perfect. The police machine is constructed to work without the slipping of a cog, as long as it is left to the undisturbed care of the original machinists.

A premonitory shaking up has been administered to the system of wheels within wheels by the Lexow Committee and its counsel. But the machine is not broken yet, the blows have not yet fallen where they will do the most good. When that Committee resumes its session it will find from the record of events transpiring during its recess that the belts and cogs are still in place, and that any shaking up that may be attempted must be not only shaken but stirred. And with its falling apart will come down some of the main props of the higher bossism under which New York has suffered too long.

The blows struck this Fall must be such as to bring final results. They must go straight and true. The machine must be not only shaken but stirred. And with its falling apart will come down some of the main props of the higher bossism under which New York has suffered too long.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon Philadelphia was plunged into an Egyptian twilight, which lasted half an hour. It was the darkest day ever known in Philadelphia, and it is something more than a coincidence that the darkness came on while the House at Washington was engaged in making its surrender to the Senate.

To add to the courage inspired at Baltimore by the success of the baseball chicle, the police have taken a census which gives the Monumental City a population of something more than 612,000. Half a million is not half bad for the Maryland metropolis.

The tariff struggle has shown Democracy its weak points. They should be strengthened for the struggles which are yet to come.

SUNDAY LAW FOR THE ARMY.

Likely to be Tested by Major Worth's Trial.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 14.—The court martial of Major William Worth, of the Department of the Platte, began at Fort Omaha today. He was accused of ordering Private Cedarquist to rifle practice on Sunday. Major Worth pleaded not guilty, but admitted that men had been ordered to target practice. He explained, however, that he thought a state of war existed as troops were expected to be called to Chicago daily. As Lincoln's order against Sunday was applied to times of peace, it was suspended, the defense argued, at this period.

The prosecution argued that the rule was suspended as war did not exist, and that Lincoln's orders were not in the laws of the Army, published by Secretary War Emory, in 1881, which are prefaced by the statement that there are all laws of the Army were introduced. These rules do not mention President Lincoln's orders of 1862 regarding work and military practice on Sunday. He began five years ago, when he was introduced to the order of President Harrison abolishing Sunday inspection and rendering null President Lincoln's order.

Among the professional witnesses called to the stand were the well-known comedian and mimic, Little Ruby, the child artist, fresh from her London success, and the infant mimic of Vesta Taylor, Miss Carlini, from the Cirque d'Été, Paris. Mr. Trévaille, the French illusionist, and others.

ALL WERE STARVING.

Braunstein's Children Sent to an Orphan Asylum.

Police Justice Steers in the Lee Avenue Police Court, Williamsburg, this morning committed David Braunstein, a five children to the Hebrew Orphan Asylum. Their names are Samuel, nine; Dora, ten; Ada, seven; Annie, seven; and Rosie, four years. For the last six months they have lived in miserable quarters with their father at 25 Johnson street.

Braunstein, who is a wood-carver, lost his position a few weeks ago. About the same time Mr. Braunstein became ill and a few weeks ago he was moved to St. Catherine's Hospital, where he is at present, dying from consumption.

Braunstein on Saturday took the last piece of furniture he possessed to a pawnshop. All day Sunday and all day yesterday Braunstein and his children were actually in a starving condition when Braunstein went to the Slagge street station and told his story.

PROCTOR'S BENEFIT.

The Theatre Should Be Crowded All Day Long To-Morrow.

Little Ruby to Dance for the Sick Babies at Cranford, N. J.

And Johnnie McKeever Heads a Big Bill at City Island.

The Subscribers.

Previously acknowledged.....$18,611.74
Windsor Hotel, Park Row.....41.95
To West One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street.....1.00
Irene Jacobs and others.....16.00
Mason street, Brooklyn.....6.05
Scholar and others.....3.75
A. R. Farrelly.....1.00
Louis Clark, Florio, Play, Dialogue, Minors.....1.00
G. von Fritzsche, Palm.....50.00
Visitors to the Dome Pulitzer Building.....21.50
Minnie Hirsch.....20.94
Entertainment at Sunset View House.....19.60
Fair at Mrs. Mayberry's.....7.75
Bonnie Thornton.....3.21
Glass at Grand Union Hotel.....7.22
Glass at Continental Hotel.....10.38
Glass at Parkside Hotel.....9.76
Glass at Grand Union Hotel.....9.95
Glass at Fifth Avenue Hotel.....5.36
Glass at McDonald's Restaurant, 472 Sixth avenue.....5.92
Glass at Hudson's Pharmacy.....5.92
Glass at Columbia Clear River.....1.25
Glass at M. E. Swartz & Co., 806 Sixth avenue.....3.23
Glass at Beaufort John's, 405 Sixth avenue.....2.64
Glass at Coleman House.....2.64
Glass at Amanda's, 50 West Forty-second street.....1.03
Glass at St. James Hotel.....1.25
Glass at New York Hotel.....1.02
Glass at Hudson's Hotel.....41
Glass at Knickerbocker Laundry, 435 Sixth avenue.....2.75
Glass at Hudson's Hotel.....1.25
Glass at Columbia Clear River.....1.25
Fair at 83 Cary street, Orange, N. J.....5.66
Fair at 17 West Ninety-seventh street.....1.00
Charles and Sister.....4.00
King's Daughters and Sons, of Ridgefield, N. J.....4.00
Lillian Dolman and Jennie Waters.....4.02
Fair at 215 East Eighty-third street.....4.00
Mary Doran.....4.00
George Teale and others.....4.00
Wills and others.....2.00
Entertainment at 109 Madison street.....2.25
Fair at 307 Eleventh street, Brooklyn.....2.01
Alice Albrecht and Florence Schneider.....2.01
Paul Henry.....2.01
Fred Carroll and others.....1.25
Florence Thomson.....1.25
Fair at Inwood, N. Y.....12.24
Hattie Hinton and others.....1.10
Ready Hinds of Bethany Chapel.....1.10
Annette Brown and others.....1.00
J. Milburn's son.....1.00
Fair at Liberty avenue and Schuman street.....1.00
C. Danneberg and others.....1.00
Lillian Block.....1.00
Fair held by Henrietta Barnett.....40

Fifty cents is not a large amount of money, even for these hard times, and yet if you go to the continuous performance at Proctor's Theatre to-morrow, with half a dollar in your inside pocket, you can enjoy a fine vaudeville show, with living pictures interspersed, and at the same time stand an even chance of saving the life of a sick baby.

Anyway, that half dollar will help send a sick baby to the country for two or three days, and give it a better time, probably, than it ever had before in all its little life. Here is a chance to get double value for your money.

All day long to-morrow, from 10 o'clock until 10, the money that is taken at Manager Proctor's box-office will be placed in a barrel, and then equally divided between "The Evening World's Sick Babies' Fund" and the Children's Aid Society.

It is hard to find two more worthy charities than these two. They will accomplish more good among the sick and unhappy and wretched little tots of the poor of this city than any other. This one furnishes skilled doctors and pure medicines. The other sends the little tots to the country and sends for a day, or a week, or a fortnight, as the case may be.

Through Proctor's generosity, it is hoped that at least 2,000 babies will be benefited.

The entertainment to-morrow will be better than usual if possible. "Mickey Mouse" will tell funny jokes and sing funny songs, and Abbie Law and Blanche Fernandez and a whole lot of babies will sing this time.

LITTLE RUBY TO DANCE.

Grand Benefit Entertainment at Cranford To-Morrow Night.

A grand benefit entertainment for "The Evening World's Sick Babies' Fund" arranged by Miss Florence Beadle, will be given to-morrow evening at the opera-house in Cranford, N. J. Miss Beadle will be assisted by the guests of Hampton Hall, the local hotel, and Edward Beadle, Jr., has kindly donated the opera-house and printing.

For the benefit of the following amateurs and professionals: Miss Ethel Thompson, prima donna of the Athens company; the amateur organization of Cranford; a gentleman guest at the hotel will present pre-arranged songs; John G. Pierson, of Harlem, will render solos; and Miss Julia Trimble will sing a ballad.

Among the professional witnesses called to the stand were the well-known comedian and mimic, Little Ruby, the child artist, fresh from her London success, and the infant mimic of Vesta Taylor, Miss Carlini, from the Cirque d'Été, Paris. Mr. Trévaille, the French illusionist, and others.

JOHNNY McKEEVER AGAIN.

The Little Artists' Big Entertainment at City Island.

Little Johnny McKeever, the famous eight-year-old violinist and catching comedian, has always been a stanch friend of "The Evening World's Sick Babies' Fund." He began five years ago, when he was smaller than his beloved violin and his tongue refused to "talk plain," to do his level best for the poor little babies of Poverty alley, and each year he has given at least one evening to the cause.

The summer of 1891 will be no exception. This time he will sing a ballad, Van Liehn, of the Bayshore Hotel, City Island, into an enthusiastic interest in this best of all the Summer charities, and Wednesday evening the little shaver will lead a splendid entertainment in aid to the Sick Babies' Fund.

Johnny's good friend, Mr. Bryson, of Mount Vernon, has written a song expressly for the occasion, and Johnny will sing it. It is entitled "To Help the Starving Tots," and Johnny says it ought to fetch a lot of the needed from the pockets of the hearers. A score of professional people will help the youngsters in a splendid programme, and as there will be no expense the result ought to be good for the fund.

Fair in a Vacant Flat.

To the Editor: Minnie Froelich, Edna Froelich, Maria Williamson and Helen Engel held a fair for the benefit of the Sick Babies' Fund, and secured a net result of $1.00. The fair took place Aug. 3, in a vacant flat, 65 East Ninety-third street. The four girls in charge worked very faithfully, and made a success.

Rhythebourne Children.

To the Editor: Herewith find $1.00, the proceeds of an entertainment for the children of Rhythebourne, L. I., on the evening of Aug. 8, at Kay's Hall. The affair was projected by Masters Joseph Van Wart and Frank Kelly, and the children were assisted by Mrs. Sedgwick, Mrs. Underwood, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Henry Elder, who generously volunteered their services for the raising of the money. The programme was as follows: Song, Master Robbie Sedgwick; recitation, Miss Josephine Elder; dialogue, Minnie Edna Strasser and Ruby Rodgers and Master Fred McCarthy; song, Mrs. Underwood; story, Minnie Sedgwick; recitation, Mrs. Brown; recitation, Miss Edna Strasser; song, Mrs. Brown; recitation, Miss Edna Strasser.

From Little Boys and Girls.

To the Editor: We are a few little boys and girls, and as our mamas allow us to read your good paper, we see how much good you are doing for the suffering babies of our great city. We got up a fair of our own and we hope we have helped the babies to the needed amount of $1.00. We got for the babies: Lemmie, Estelle Levine, Albert Levine, Sadie Federman, Ralph Levine, Harry Levine, Edith Federman.

Dead Helps the Dying.

To the Editor: Included please find $5.00, the proceeds of an entertainment given by the children of 62 Amsterdam avenue, also 50 cents given from a dead baby's savings bank. We hope it will do the babies good. We also hope the children on our list will be able to help the babies in some way. We are: Charles, 10 years; Jennie, 10 years; Mary, 10 years; and George, 10 years.

Hard Work and Good Results.

To the Editor: The enclosed $5.00 is the sum of $5.00, the proceeds of our fair, which was held at Agate Hall, 1016 Broadway, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Aug. 8 and 9, for the benefit of the Sick Babies' Fund.

We have worked very hard to make our fair a success, and hope the enclosed amount will prove a small contribution to the fund. The fair was held at Agate Hall, 1016 Broadway, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Aug. 8 and 9, for the benefit of the Sick Babies' Fund.

Feel Ample Repaid.

To the Editor: The enclosed $5.00 is the sum of $5.00, the proceeds of our fair, which was held at Agate Hall, 1016 Broadway, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Aug. 8 and 9, for the benefit of the Sick Babies' Fund.

They Did Splendidly.

To the Editor: The enclosed $5.00 is the sum of $5.00, the proceeds of our fair, which was held at Agate Hall, 1016 Broadway, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Aug. 8 and 9, for the benefit of the Sick Babies' Fund.

It All Helps.

To the Editor: We have kindly made up a little stand in front of 117 West 42nd street and made 25 cents, and we have sent it to you for the Sick Babies' Fund. We have been very happy to do so.

Proceeds of an Entertainment.

To the Editor: I enclose you find $5.00, the proceeds of an entertainment held at the home of Miss Maggie McCreary, 108 Cramer street. Her little friends were very happy to do so.

Lizzie Gemmel's Fair.

Through a typographical error, Lizzie Gemmel, of the Seventh street, was credited in these columns last Friday with raising only $1.00 for the Sick Babies' Fund. The amount raised was $1.00. The fair was held at the home of Miss Lizzie Gemmel, 108 Cramer street, on Friday evening, Aug. 10, for the benefit of the Sick Babies' Fund.

Arverne's Big Lift.

To the Editor: I enclose please find check for $107.50, being the net proceeds of a fair held last Thursday at the Arverne Hotel for the benefit of various charities. Very truly yours, Mrs. J. Weisberg, Mrs. Albert Adams, Mrs. J. Weisberg, Mrs. Albert Adams.

Wrong Street, Correct Amount.

Last Tuesday morning $1.15 was received from George Mallard, Arthur Millan, Julius Lyons, Matt Block, Joe Lyons, W. Gansberger, Maribelle Gansberger and Minnie Kahn. The money was the proceeds of a fair held at 175 East One Hundred and Seventh street, at stated.

Master Sanders, Not Strauss.

In a notice of an entertainment to be given at Steinbush Hall to-morrow evening, published in "The Evening World" yesterday, the name of Nathan Sanders was printed Nathan Strauss. The Strauss family are well known to the friends of the organization.

They Collected $1.50.

To the Editor: The undersigned have made this collection for the benefit of the Sick Babies' Fund: Harry Benness, Ray Benson, Gus Tillman, Maud Tillman.

Fair Arranged by Children.

To the Editor: I enclose please find money order for $1.50, the proceeds of a fair held at 175 East One Hundred and Seventh street, at stated.

Fair at Tompkinsville.

To the Editor: I enclose please find $1.50, proceeds of a fair held for the Sick Babies' Fund, at Tompkinsville, N. Y., at stated.

FASSETT WANTS IT.

He Confirms the Report that He Is a Gubernatorial Candidate.

Mr. Platt Declines to Discuss the Elmira Man's Chances.

The German-American Reform Union Opens Its Campaign.

As "The Evening World" announced exclusively last Saturday, J. Sloat Fassett is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, Mr. Fassett, who was in this city yesterday, confirmed the report. The young man from Elmira has been making a canvass of the State, and he feels confident that enough delegates can be elected in his favor to secure for him the coveted prize.

Mr. Platt might tell what chance of success Fassett has of capturing the nomination, but he won't. Mr. Fassett is a favorite with New York City Republicans. He has the promise of support from many influential men here.

John E. Milholland is still making a lot of noise. He says he won't enroll under the Committee of Thirty, and may run an independent ticket.

Milholland is not taken seriously. He has no following of any consequence, and the few soreheads who howl with him now will stop as soon as his money given out. Since his faction has been declared irregular, the people who have been drawn to him by his money have withdrawn their financial support, and political organizations cannot be run by money.

The German-American Reform Union will begin active work for the campaign to-morrow evening. The union has been called at Vienna Hall for the purpose of permanent organization of the German-American Reform Union. Officers will be elected and an address may be issued, calling upon all anti-Tammany factions to support the union.

Oswald Ottendorfer is President of the Union. He is now in Europe, but will be here to-morrow to take part in the campaign.

The Beth Low for Mayor first. He is not a candidate, and the Union is willing to unite on any other good man who has the approval of the Union.

The German-American Reform Union will begin active work for the campaign to-morrow evening. The union has been called at Vienna Hall for the purpose of permanent organization of the German-American Reform Union. Officers will be elected and an address may be issued, calling upon all anti-Tammany factions to support the union.

Oswald Ottendorfer is President of the Union. He is now in Europe, but will be here to-morrow to take part in the campaign.

The Beth Low for Mayor first. He is not a candidate, and the Union is willing to unite on any other good man who has the approval of the Union.

The German-American Reform Union will begin active work for the campaign to-morrow evening. The union has been called at Vienna Hall for the purpose of permanent organization of the German-American Reform Union. Officers will be elected and an address may be issued, calling upon all anti-Tammany factions to support the union.

Oswald Ottendorfer is President of the Union. He is now in Europe, but will be here to-morrow to take part in the campaign.

The Beth Low for Mayor first. He is not a candidate, and the Union is willing to unite on any other good man who has the approval of the Union.

The German-American Reform Union will begin active work for the campaign to-morrow evening. The union has been called at Vienna Hall for the purpose of permanent organization of the German-American Reform Union. Officers will be elected and an address may be issued, calling upon all anti-Tammany factions to support the union.

Oswald Ottendorfer is President of the Union. He is now in Europe, but will be here to-morrow to take part in the campaign.

The Beth Low for Mayor first. He is not a candidate, and the Union is willing to unite on any other good man who has the approval of the Union.

The German-American Reform Union will begin active work for the campaign to-morrow evening. The union has been called at Vienna Hall for the purpose of permanent organization of the German-American Reform Union. Officers will be elected and an address may be issued, calling upon all anti-Tammany factions to support the union.

Oswald Ottendorfer is President of the Union. He is now in Europe, but will be here to-morrow to take part in the campaign.

The Beth Low for Mayor first. He is not a candidate, and the Union is willing to unite on any other good man who has the approval of the Union.

The German-American Reform Union will begin active work for the campaign to-morrow evening. The union has been called at Vienna Hall for the purpose of permanent organization of the German-American Reform Union. Officers will be elected and an address may be issued, calling upon all anti-Tammany factions to support the union.

Oswald Ottendorfer is President of the Union. He is now in Europe, but will be here to-morrow to take part in the campaign.

The Beth Low for Mayor first. He is not a candidate, and the Union is willing to unite on any other good man who has the approval of the Union.

The German-American Reform Union will begin active work for the campaign to-morrow evening. The union has been called at Vienna Hall for the purpose of permanent organization of the German-American Reform Union. Officers will be elected and an address may be issued, calling upon all anti-Tammany factions to support the union.

Oswald Ottendorfer is President of the Union. He is now in Europe, but will be here to-morrow to take part in the campaign.

The Beth Low for Mayor first. He is not a candidate, and the Union is willing to unite on any other good man who has the approval of the Union.

The German-American Reform Union will begin active work for the campaign to-morrow evening. The union has been called at Vienna Hall for the purpose of permanent organization of the German-American Reform Union. Officers will be elected and an address may be issued, calling upon all anti-Tammany factions to support the union.

Oswald Ottendorfer is President of the Union. He is now in Europe, but will be here to-morrow to take part in the campaign.

The Beth Low for Mayor first. He is not a candidate, and the Union is willing to unite on any other good man who has the approval of the Union.

The German-American Reform Union will begin active work for the campaign to-morrow evening. The union has been called at Vienna Hall for the purpose of permanent organization of the German-American Reform Union. Officers will be elected and an address may be issued, calling upon all anti-Tammany factions to support the union.

Oswald Ottendorfer is President of the Union. He is now in Europe, but will be here to-morrow to take part in the campaign.

The Beth Low for Mayor first. He is not a candidate, and the Union is willing to unite on any other good man who has the approval of the Union.

The German-American Reform Union will begin active work for the campaign to-morrow evening. The union has been called at Vienna Hall for the purpose of permanent organization of the German-American Reform Union. Officers will be elected and an address may be issued, calling upon all anti-Tammany factions